

These bicycle routes are shared with motor vehicles: bicyclists need to be alert and ready for high-speed traffic at all times. Several miles of these routes have no shoulders. Riding single file on the right side of the right-hand lane when possible will be appreciated by approaching motorists and will in most cases be the safest alignment for cyclists. Never ride against traffic.

Take water, as none is available along these routes. Take a tire pump, bike tools, and a spare inner-tube in case of breakdown. A cellular phone may be handy too. And please leave no trace of your passing. Bike route signs have been posted along these routes for your convenience and safety.

Please wear a safety helmet and use hand signals to indicate turns and stops. Bicyclists are required by Indiana law to obey traffic signs and signals. Dress for high visibility, day or night. Use lights in front and back when it's dark.

The routes have numbered signs in only one direction per route: counterclockwise on routes 1-3, clockwise on route 4; in the opposite direction only standard bike route signs and some warning signs have been posted. You may ride in either direction, but users unfamiliar to the routes will benefit from riding in the direction of the numbered signs.
